PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Gacho Group Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file, without unreasonable effort or expense, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024 within the prescribed time period. As previously disclosed in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on November 12, 2024, on the same day, the Company filed a voluntary petition (the "Chapter 11 Reorganization") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida (the "Bankruptcy Court") seeking relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The Company is unable to pay the fees to its auditors and other professionals that are required to complete the Annual Report due to liquidity constraints and therefore cannot file the Annual Report on or before the March 31, 2025 due date without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company cannot at this time estimate when it will be able to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The Company intends to continue filing Current Reports on Form 8-K disclosing material events in the Chapter 11 Reorganization and other information required under Form 8-K during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Reorganization.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  NO

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  NO

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For the reasons described above in Part III - Narrative of this Form 12b-25, the Company has concluded that it is unable to file the Annual Report without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company believes that its results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2024 differed significantly from its results of operations for the corresponding year ended December 31, 2023 due to significant adverse developments that occurred with respect to the Company's business and liquidity in the year ended December 31, 2024, including the commencement of the Chapter 11 Reorganization.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Trading in the Company's Securities

The Company's securityholders are cautioned that trading in the common stock during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Reorganization is highly speculative and poses substantial risk. Trading prices for the common stock may bear little or no relationship to the actual recovery, if any, by holders thereof in the Chapter 11 Reorganization. Accordingly, the Company urges extreme caution with respect to existing and future investments in its common stock.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

These and other factors that may affect the Company's future business prospects, results and operations are identified and described in more detail in the Company's filings with the SEC, including the Company's most recent Quarterly Report filed on Form 10-Q.
